

Butler Eagle

In Brief

BC3's Lloyd named HM All-American

Article published December 7, 2011
From staff and wire reports

BUTLER TWP — Butler County Community College sophomore libero Danielle Lloyd, a Butler High graduate, has been named honorable mention All-American in volleyball by the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Lloyd, the only libero named, led the Pioneers to a 21-5 record and the NJCAA Region XX championship. She joins Missy Haney (1999), Megan Smith (2002-03) and Sarah Beals (2010) as the only All-Americans in BC3 volleyball history.