

Schools.com Ranks BC3 Top Community College

Posted By: Kayla Molczan on: December 08, 2015

Schools.com has named Butler County Community College the top community college in the state.

The online resource looked at several factors before compiling its list- including total cost, student-to-faculty ratio, graduation rate and number of transfer agreements with other institutions in Pennsylvania.

The report said an affordable tuition and a high transfer rate were the reasons BC3 earned the number one spot on the list