STUDENT INFORMATION RELEASE AUTHORIZATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), a U.S. federal statute also known as the Buckley Amendment, regulates access to student educational records. The law:

- Provides eligible students the ability to review their educational records.
- Protects student privacy rights by limiting access to educational records without the express written consent of the student.
- Provides the ability to request the amendment of the student's educational record if student believes it is inaccurate or misleading.
- Provides the ability to file a complaint with U.S. Department of Education concerning alleged failures by BC3 to comply with FERPA.

Information cannot be shared with others (including parents) unless the student formally gives permission by signing this Student Information Release Authorization Form.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

Butler County Community College is committed to providing equal opportunity in admissions and treatment of students, in educational programs for students, in employment opportunities and in governance of the College, without regard to race, color, religious creed, ancestry, national origin, handicap or disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, family status, or other classification protected by applicable law.

The College shall take affirmative action to ensure (1) that it does not discriminate against an employee or applicant for employment or another person because of race, color, religious creed, ancestry, national origin, handicap or disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, family status, or other classification protected by applicable law; (2) that it does not subject students to unlawful discrimination in the admission process, take any action, direct or indirect, to segregate students in a classroom or course, or subject students to different or separate treatment in, nor restrict the enjoyment by a student of, a service, facility, activity or program at the College on the basis of race, color, religious creed, ancestry, national origin, handicap or disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, family status, or other classification protected by applicable law; and (3) that it does not discriminate in the employment of administrators on the basis of race, color, religious creed, ancestry, national origin, handicap or disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, family status, or other classification protected by applicable law and that its governance structure includes diverse membership broadly representative of the public interest as may be required by law or regulation.

There shall be no retaliation against any applicant, employee, or student for filing a harassment or discrimination complaint, or assisting, testifying, or participating in the investigation of such a complaint. Any applicant, employee, or student reporting sexual or other harassment or discrimination will also be protected from reprisals or retaliation by the College, any supervisors, and/or coworkers as a result of such complaint(s).

The College is committed to be in compliance with the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act (43 P.S. §§ 951-962.2) and the Pennsylvania Fair Educational opportunities Act (24 P.S. § 5001-5009). Employment and educational opportunities at Butler County Community College are available to all as required by Title VI, Title VII, Title IX, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Pennsylvania Fair Educational opportunities Act, the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act, and all applicable laws and regulations.
